

GRANT APPLICATION

East-King School Retirees' Association Unit #16

The East-King School Retirees' Association, a unit of the Washington State School Retirees' Association, has established a maximum of $200 per applicant for mini-grants for educators to use in supplementing their programs.

In choosing recipients, we consider the following criteria:

- The number of students the grant will benefit.
- Whether or not the benefit will be on-going.
- The clarity and specificity of the request.
- The amount of money needed.
